Jean Zitrone, a Dutch entrepreneur, and his company Diavita N.V. in Venlo, Netherlands, have created a book on African wisdom, Sankofa: Wisdom From Africa, which is a result of a long life journey. It is a practical book. It would be of value to anyone who is interested in learning more about Sankofa. The book is divided into the following topics: Sankofa and the opening chapter are dedicated to the basic tenets of the philosophy. In Sankofa, there are three main themes: 'The need for cultural unity', 'The need for spiritual unity' and 'The need for social unity'. The majority of the book is dedicated to the first theme. The need for cultural unity (from about page 30): A virtual encyclopedia of information about 'the African past', 'the African present' and 'the African future'. Example titles include: African Philosophy: From Antiquity to the Twenty-First Century. The African Diaspora: A History. The African Renaissance: Integrating African Peoples, Ideas and Culture. African History: Decolonising Knowledge. By Sankofa The need for spiritual unity: About pages 57 to 68, the opportunity to'sacred' is elaborated with great depth and breadth. Example titles include: The World's Religions: From Spirituality to Ethics. The Legacy of African Christianity in Brazil: Historical Roots and the Future of Integral Christianity. From the Cross to the Throne: Reading the Scriptures in African Christianity. Forgiveness in the Bible: A Study of the Qumran Community and the Development of Jewish Ethics. The End of the Jewish Diaspora and the Emergence of the Caiaphas School of Theology. History and Identity in the African Seminary in the Netherlands. Moral Traditions in the Diaspora: The African Experience in North America. Integral thought in Africa: From NEPAD to the Sustainable Development Goals. The need for social unity (from about page 68) can be found at 'Introduction to the Sankofa World
