Read more: Spotify is a cloud-based service that allows you to listen to music offline, but if you want to listen to it in a web browser, there's a problem: most web browsers require you to be online. IOS 6 and above doesn't have a native version of Spotify, but there are options that work pretty well and even if you're using earlier IOS versions, you can probably install Spotify in Safari. Web browsers can access the Spotify servers via the internet, but since the servers are accessible when you're on the same network as your Spotify account, you can install an application on your iPhone that can let you play it offline.
